

LAMPS

THE PASSION

THE PASSION is a dramatised account of the events running up to the first Easter, based on the Bible verses below. It is set in and around Jerusalem about thirty years into the first century. It lasts just over an hour and there is no interval.

Cast (in order of appearance)

Mary Magdalene - Emma Jane Peyton

Simon Peter - Fergus Munro

Marcus - Chris Matthewman

Written & Directed by Sam Pullen-Campbell

Co-written by Chris Matthewman

Music by Heidi Cottrell

Sound and Lighting by Caleb Fraser

Scenes

Scene 1 Perfume - Luke 7:36

Scene 2 Fishing - Luke 5:1-11

Scene 3 Deliverance - Luke 8

Scene 4 Jericho Road - Luke 19:28-40

Scene 5 Before Jerusalem - Various

Scene 6 The Temple - Matthew 12:12-1

Scene 7 Last Supper - Matthew 26:17-30

Scene 8 Gethsemane - Luke 22:39-52

Scene 9 Sanhedrin - Mark 14:53-65

Scene 10 Peter's denial - Luke 22:54-62

Scene 11 Before Pilate - Luke 23:1-25

Scene 12 Calvary road - Luke 23:26-28

Scene 13 The Cross - Luke 23:44-47

Scene 14 Sunday morning - A Reflection

Scene 15 The Tomb - A Reflection

Scene 16 Easter - John 20:1-18

LIKE TO HOST A LAMPS SHOW FOR YOUR OWN COMMUNITY?

You can book The Passion (12-27 Mar 2027), Salt and Light (30 Aug – 12 Sep 2027) or a Christmas show – Heavenly Realms or Christmas by LampsLight (11-20 Dec)

Contact 07452 982705 or bookings@lampscollective.com.

Book before 31 Aug 26 and get 10% off!

Edinburgh Fringe performances of The Passion are generously supported by The MacLellan Foundation Scotland and the Jeremy Marshall Gospel Fund.

www.lampscollective.com